Italy has also taken Bul from Austria-Hungary, and Russia has taken Sev from Turkey. France, Italy, and Russia each have one build, and England and Turkey each have one removal. The deadline for these "Winter 1905" moves, which may be made conditional on the direction of the Italian retreat, is NOON, SATURDAY 16 APRIL 1977. (If Italy exercises the option to remove the dislodged A Rum, then he will have two builds.)

"Fall 1905"

EASTERN ALLIES CARVE BALKANS

FRANCE (Verheiden): F Spa(s.c.)-Wes; F Wal-Lon; A Yor S F Wal-Lon; A Bel holds; A Gas-Bre; F Mid S A Gas-Bre; A Den holds.

TURKEY (Bergeman): A Bud-Tri; A Ser & A Alb S A Bud-Tri; A Bul-Rum; F Ion-Nap; F Tyr S F Ion-Nap; F Eas-Ion; F Bla-Con.

Underlined moves are not possible. The following retreats take place:

ENGLAND: F Bre-Pic.

ITALY: A Nap-Rom.

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY: A Tri-Tyr.

Many transfers of supply centers have taken place. England has lost Den and Lon to France, and Swe to Russia, thus being eliminated from the game. (The remaining English units are therefore removed in "Winter 1905".) Russia has won Bud and Vie from Austria-Hungary, while Turkey has taken Nap from Italy and Tri from Austria-Hungary. Therefore, in the "Winter 1905" season Turkey, and France each have two builds, while Russia has 3, and Austria-Hungary has a removal. (See #358 for the list of Supply Centers as of the end of the last game year.) There are some press releases on p. 6.

Following "Spring 1904" moves England retreated F Ber-Bal.

TURKEY (Braunagel): F Con-Aeg ((sic; no such unit exists)); F Smy S F Con-Aeg; A Con not ordered.

Underlined moves are not possible. The French A Con and Turkish A Con are annihilated; Germany retreats F Kie-Wel, and Turkey retreats the dislodged F Smy, though both will be annihilated in "Winter 1904" since neither country has supply centers left.

The High Combatant Powers now control the following supply centers:

ENGLAND: Bel, Den, Edi, Hol, Kie, Liv, Lon, Nwy, Swe. (9) AUSTRIA-HUNGARY: Bud, Gre, Hun, Ser, Smy, Tri, Ven, Vie. (9)
FRANCE: Bre, Mar, Par, Por, Spa, Rum. (6) RUSSIA: Ark, Bar, Bul, Con, Mos, Rum, St.P, Sev, Var. (9)
ITALY: Nap, Rom. (2)

France and Russia each have two builds, and Austria-Hungary and England each have one. (Russia has acquired 3 new supply centers, but only 1 home center is open.) The deadline for these "Winter 1904" builds is NOON, SATURDAY 16 APRIL 1977.

PARIS (July 14, 1904, AFP): The Emperor Napoleon IV today presided over a massive Bastille Day demonstration for vengeance against the Habsburgs. "If that twit who runs the Völkischer in Central Europe thinks he can defeat us, he and that Italian wolf are sadly mistaken! I appeal to the oppressed Czechs, Poles, Kravats, and other nationalities subject to the tyrannical rule of Vienna to rise up against their jailer! This war shall end, not as the Habsburgs think, in French submission but in finis Austriae! Vive la France! Vives les nations opprimées!"

VOGASTISBURGER-NEUSTADT (July 30, 1904, AFP): The arbitration commission for the Four And A Half Kingdoms, called last spring to settle the Skandalous-Polykarpian War, has been dissolved by its instigator, Chancellor Blaffmarck. When asked why, he responded, "You saw the members of the commission, didn't you? It would take an arbitration commission just to get them to sit in the same room!"

O At ROMA TEMPORARIA (August 3, 1904, AFP): Emperor Petronius Apuleius
P Great Suetonius Martialis Cassiodorus Plautus Plutarchus Juvenalis, well-
E Intervals known author and literary critic, today declared war on the Pravoslav-
R This nian Patrimony of Polykarp in retaliation for their burning of his lat-
A Appears est book, A la Recherche des Orgies Perdues.
T To ANAKHIT, SKANDALITZ (August 6, 1904, URRP): Col. Chanticleer, Blimp
I Inflame founder of Col. Blimp's Kensington Fried Chicken, today expressed re-
O Optic sentment of a recent Temporary Roman statement which he believed to re-N Nerves flect on the integrity of one of his suppliers. "Orgies Perdues, in-783 deed!" he said. "I buy most of my chickens from Elmer, and I know he never engaged in any such practice in his life!"

Col. Blimp is in anakhit to open up the first outlet in the Four And A Half Kingdoms of his well-known chain of restaurants.

ROMA TEMPORARIA (August 10, 1904, URRP): The new Emperor expressed his regrets about the mis-understanding concerning the title of the French translation of his book. "I never should have agreed to my publisher's insistence that the original Latin should be translated into one of these flashy 'modern' languages," he said. "After all, the study and appreciation of good Latin is coming back, even in France. There were two entire words of Latin in the Emperor's last speech!"

PARIS (August 12, 1904, AFP): The new Austrian threat has forced the Chamber of Deputies to finally agree on a new premier. To everyone's surprise, this turned out to be the recent hero of the African campaign, Marshal Lyautey. The Marshal promised a vigorous regime and a firm prosecution of the war against Austria.

VIENNA (August 30, 1904): IT'S A GIRL!! After a somewhat hazardous pregnancy (see GRAUSTARK #360) Ursilla McVoom, aide to Count Dracula, gave birth today to a 12 lb. 14 oz. petite baby girl. The baby was promptly named Zsa Zsa. The fathers of the child, the 4th Transylvanian Cavalry, were unable to attend the birth since they are presently in Venice enjoying the local scenery. To strengthen their ties with the Four And A Half Kingdoms, the new mother has written each asking for a list of suitable godfathers for the little Zsa Zsa.

BUDAPEST (September 3 or 4, 1904): Word has leaked out on a new secret weapon being developed by Count Dracula. It seems that the Count has taken one of those newfangled auto-mobiles and made some alterations. The rubber tyres have been replaced by metal ones and the whole thing has been covered with steel sheets. To top it off, a cannon has been mounted on top. The Count plans on calling this hideous invention a "TONK" after the tonk-tonk noise made by the metal wheels running over rocks.

PARIS (September 4, 1904, AFP): The Senate today issued a report on the series of events which led to the Austrian declaration of war. It dismisses the allegations of a French plot to assassinate the Austrian Emperor as "nonsense". The report states that the "plot" was fabricated by the Emperor himself to give him an excuse for his treachery. Corroborating this was the statement of the head of the French Surete, Commandant Mata Hari. "Of course the assassination wasn't our work. If I had been trying to assassinate the Austrian Emperor, bullets would have been the last thing I would have used!"

VIENNA (September 7, 1904): Robert I, Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary, etc., etc. has announced a plan whereby loyal allies of Austria-Hungary will be able to purchase limited quantities of both the "Pedal Power Aero-Machine" and the newly developed "TONK". It is requested that prospective buyers send lots of money with their orders.

WOGASTISBURGER-NEUSTADT (November 11, 1904, United Rabble Rousing Press): A Land-nacht investigation has disclosed that Dagobert Schneck, a Mail Sorter Third Grade for the Grand Ducal Ministry of Posts, Telephones, and Runners With Forked Sticks, has been opening diplomatic mail and selling the contents to interested parties. This fact came to light when Schneck offered to sell a formal invitation allegedly issued by the Queen of Skandalutz to the Emperor of Austria-Hungary, to be her royal guest at the forthcoming Winter Solstice Festival in Skandalutz. Skandalous authorities insist that the letter is a forgery, but the French Charge d'Affaires de Tout Court, M. le Noir, insists that the letter, which Schneck offered to sell him for 35 million Wogastisburger crowns or three and a half francs suisse, is genuine.

ANAKHIT, SKANDALUTZ (December 27, 1904, AFP): The new Year-King for 1905 was announced today. He is the Austro-Hungarian national hero Count Dracula. Not all the Skandals are pleased with this choice. Muttered one Priestess, "I hate blood soup!"

WOGASTISBURGER-NEUSTADT (December 29, 1904, URRP): As he was expelled from the Grand Duchy as persona non grata following the sentencing of his accomplice Schneck, the French diplomat M. le Noir was heard to remark, "Win a few, lose a few."

TEMPORARY ROME (December 31, 1904, URRP): In his New Year's Eve Orgy Message to the Temporary Roman Empire, the Emperor remarked, "You see? You see? Now they're going back to Latin in Wogastisburg-Schlampenbüttel, too!"

NETHER DODDERING, SKANDALUTZ (URRP): While the rest of Europe is sunk in war, the biggest disturbance at this old age home high in the Balkan Massif is the perennial argument between two inmates, Edmund Burke and Karl Marx.

"England iss goink down der drain. it zeems," Marx wheezed, holding a copy of the latest Skandalous Daily Mail.

"Begorra, Oi'm not surprised," Burke replied. "They've abandoned the true principles of aristocracy for socialism. It's loike Oi said, 'Every person in your country, in a situation to be actusted by a principle of honour, is disgraced and degraded...The next generation of the nobility will resemble the artificers and clowns, and money-jobbers, usurers, and Jews, who will be always their fellows, sometimes their masters. Believe me, Sir, those who attempt to level, never equalize...The association of taylors and carpenters, of which the republic...is composed, cannot be equal to the situation, into which, by the worst of usurpations, an usurpation on the prerogatives of nature, you attempt to force them.'"

"Iss dot so?" Marx sputtered. "Vot does der common people say aboutt dot?"

"Who cares?" Burke said. "As I wrote, 'The occupation of an hair-dresser, or of a working tallow-chandler, cannot be a matter of honour to any person...Such descriptions of men ought not to suffer oppression from the state, but the state suffers oppression if such as they, either individually or collectively, are permitted to rule.'"

"Does you eggspect anyvun to belief dot rubbish?"

"Indade Oi do! There's a young admirer of mine - I forget his name, except that it rhymes with me own - has written, or will write, 'Burke's Reflections on the Revolution in France is the work which is now the foundation of modern conservatism in Britain, America, and Western countries generally.'"

"Ya, you iss right," Marx admitted. "I know countries vere dem vise-ass remarks aboutt Jews iss der foundation uff conservatism."

PARIS: One of these days it will dawn on Bergeman that some of his prospective 18 centers will have to come from Russia. That will be the day that that "loyal Russian friend" becomes "boiled Russian hen" (sorry about that...)

PASADENA: Write in FRANK MCILVAINE for the Gemignani Award for OUTSTANDING PUPPET. Anyone who can convince himself that a two-unit fourth place is a "joint victory" should win hands down.

ITALY (Salcedo): Builds F Nap.

The deadline for "Spring 1972" moves is NOON, SATURDAY 16 APRIL 1977.

PARIS (Nov. 1, 1901): Louie Gardin, the president of the French clothing firm of Pierre Cardin, today officially accepted the invitation of the Skandalous Government to attend their forthcoming Winter Solstice Festival. Thus, M. Gardin will become the first Frenchman to visit the capital city of Skandalutz, Anakhit. No other Frenchman has ever made it past the regimental outposts of the elite Skandalous fighting units, Hure's Whores and the Titanian Guard.

ANAKHIT (Nov. 15, 1901, URRP): Minister of Information Oral Robust, the only male member of the Skandalous cabinet, today clarified the recent public statement of French coturier Louie Cardin, who will be the Queen's personal guest at next month's Winter Solstice Festival. "Naturally, thousands of Frenchmen have peacefully visited the Kingdom of Skandaluts over the course of the centuries," he said. "We need only mention the state visit paid by the Emperor Napoleon I to Queen Tanna Hanna in 1808, or the many times that the novelist Pierre Louys visited our country in search of inspiration. But it is true that every hostile French army, which has ever attempted to invade Skandalutz, has been defeated by our valiant and tireless armed forces."

PARIS (Dec. 22, 1901, AFP): Rumor has it that Louie Cardin is a prisoner of the Polykarpian Government. Informed sources say that M. Cardin and his party were on their way to the Skandalous Winter Solstice Festival when they inadvertently crossed into Polykarp. Apparently, M. Cardin and his party then proceeded to march into Polykarpopolis while singing "Hey Bud-dee" at the top of their lungs. Once inside the city, the group was arrested and the shipment of reversible split-crotch panties intended for Hure's Whores was seized. Representatives of Pierre Cardin refused to comment on the story.

POLYKARPOLIS (Dec. 26, 1901, URRP): Cardinal Sonovavich, press secretary to the Patriarch Vanlaam VIII, today indignantly denied "certain rumors circulated by enemies of the True Faith". These rumors allegedly told what the Patriarch and several members of the High School of Cardinals did with the split-crotch panties seized from Louie Cardin and his party of coturiours.

TURKEY (Wells): A Rum S AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN A Gal-Ukr; F Bla S A Rum; F Ion-Eas.

The Italian "Fall 1902" move F Tun holds was misprinted as "F Tun-Ion"; actually this original order had been changed before the deadline but the Gamesmaster failed to note it. For that reason, Italy finished the year in possession of Tunis and thus had a build. The deadline for "Spring 1903" moves is NOON, SATURDAY 16 APRIL 1977.

NAVIEN (Jan. 17, 1903): The rather erratic behavior of the Italian Mediterranean Fleet has led to the complete overhaul of the Italian Admiralty. The final falling from favor came when a review of the fleet was called for and nobody could find it.

ROME (Feb. 1, 1903): Foreign affairs expert Lost Luigi returned from a visit to the hospitalized King of England today. He informed reporters that despite what the London papers are saying, the King is definitely suffering from multiple stab wounds.
